"The Secretary, General Post Office."

SIR,

Reception of Wireless Signals.

With reference to your letter of the 1st instant I am directed by the Postmaster General to say that, pending the issue of a formal licence, he authorises you, on the conditions specified overleaf, to instal and use a station for receiving wireless signals for experimental purposes at

Loravon, Marnock, Oldham

The height of the aerial may be taken as that the length of the external lead.

This permit is subject to withdrawal or modification at any time, either by specific notice in writing sent to you by post at the address shown above or by means of a general notice in the London Gazette addressed to all holders of licences for experimental wireless telegraph receiving stations.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

[Signature]
for the Secretary.

M. R. Hall Esq

No 529.
