

LIEUT. (Acting unpaid) Captain) W.R.Hall

age - 25

G.S

Technical knowledge and Training.

An engineer by profession with practical experience of pattern making, tool fitting, turning and milling also setting up and working electric motors and dynamos. He has a good knowledge of the working and mechanism of oil and petrol engines.

He has been in Command of the 6th. Cyclist Ede. Signal Troop since 1st. May 1916 and has had to superintend the erection of about 70 miles airline for Coast defence purposes.

He has had experience in testing and localisation of faults with the Wheatstone bridge etc. A good theoretical knowledge of the Fullerphone also all the instruments with which this Brigade is equipped for Coast defence and other purposes.

A slight knowledge of Wireless telegraphy and a thorough grounding in general electrical knowledge.

He was educated at Clifton College 1903 - 1911 where he specialised in Chemistry, Physics and mathematics followed by six months in a French family near Blois.

Ma-hill

31/18

E. A. Harman-
B.C.

6 Cyclist Bde